VISITORS

Frank Curl asked council to consider adding "2 hour limit" parking signs to the N. Pitt St. area in front of Grace Anna Boggs and Jerritt Whalen properties. He explained that out of town visitors do not know that the parking spaces have time limits and the fines have recently increased.

Attorney Chris Brewer representing Dinsmore Schol advised council that he prepared an Ordinance for an August 18 adoption that would allow PNC Capital Markets to sell Mercer Borough's bond issue at a lower cost while interest rates were low.
